Each member is obliged to abide by club bylaws (posted in clubhouse and on website - www.sailregina.ca). Family, Single or Other Membership is considered as 'one membership'. All members are responsible for the safety and conduct of their dependants and guests. It is expected that members clean up after use of club premises and report property damage and any accidents or 'incidents' in the logbook which is prominently displayed in the clubhouse. Members are required to provide "DOT approved" PFD's (with whistle) for each person in their party on the water. Members may use club boats, provided (a) they demonstrate to an appropriate Director that they meet the skill/experience requirements, (b) adhere to Sailing Guidelines and (c) pay any rental fees as described under current Club Policy. The member signing out club property is responsible for any damage to that boat or equipment.

I understand that while sailing is usually a safe and enjoyable sport it, like all water sports can result in injury or even death. I agree to save harmless the Saskatchewan Sailing Clubs Association (SSCA), the Canadian Yachting Association (CYA) and the Regina Sailing Club (RSC), its organisers, respective agents, officials, servants and representatives from and against all claims, actions, costs, expenses, demands in respect to death, injury, loss or damages to me, my guests or property howsoever caused arising out of connection with taking part in events or using property howsoever caused. I further understand and agree that this release is binding upon heirs executors assigns and myself.

I have read and understand the above disclaimer: Signature: Date:

Membership Fees:

The annual membership fee incorporates a "sweat equity" surcharge refundable* at the close of the sailing season based on the member's activity in the upkeep of club property. If the member chooses not to participate in club upkeep or fails to meet the minimum number of hours (based on an existing club formula) this surcharge will not be refunded. There is a $50.00 late payment penalty beginning on June 15th for existing club members
